POPSTAFF™ custom-made pop videos starring your staff!

Want to inspire office team spirit in the most dynamic, exciting, unforgettable way possible? popStaff is it.

We bring the music, the choreography (relax, no fancy footwork) and the cameras and before you can say, "MTV", your colleagues can star in their own pop video.

Just choose the hit the suits your business – anything from Abba to Madonna – and then get ready for an amazing team-building experience.

the most talked-about staff-bonding day in town

Professionally filmed and edited staff-studded videos, popStaff is ideal for Christmas party screenings or even company weekends away.

The possibilities are endless, hilarious and guaranteed to bring showbiz sparkle to any corporate event.

"The pop video was not only a great success, it was good fun to make, even though we were all incredibly apprehensive about being on film! You were all highly professional and did a great job." JENNIE BRIGHTWELL, ATOS CONSULTING

.....
"You learn more about people in an hour of play than in a year of conversations." PLATO

.....
And that's the magic of popStaff. Employers and staff are brought together in a relaxed, enjoyable atmosphere where they can really enjoy and have fun in each other's company.

popStaff even inspires the most 'reluctant office celebrities' to get into the team spirit and reveal hidden talents.

a popStaff rehearsal and shoot takes approximately 3-4 hours and includes:

- ★ Miming and dancing to your company's chosen pop hit a few times.
- ★ Learning some basic steps (leave your taps at home).
- ★ Then it's lights, camera... well, you know the rest.

There are no funny wigs, disguises or make-up. And the ties and suits stay on. Trust us, it's funnier.
