

frequently asked questions

What is the difference between a starEvents video and a video we can set up and film ourselves?

You'll find there's a great difference between a 'home-made' video and a starEvents film.

When we film the items for your starEvents film, we are working from a guide script. We know exactly what scenes/actions will work best with the theme you have chosen. We also encourage your child to 'perform' for the camera at key moments during their Activity and Interview.

During filming, we ensure the sound and lighting is correct, ie there are no shadows on faces or distracting back-lighting. We look for interesting camera angles and movements, when required we use professional tripods and we concentrate on 'framing' each shot to get the most impact. And with professional microphones, we can hear everyone loud and clear!

The other difference is simply, time. You can create diary-style videos of your family complete with scanned photos, a selection of meaningful songs and selective editing. You can have fantastic ideas, but do you have the time? In essence a starEvents video gives you the pleasure of reliving the irreplaceable milestone moments in your life without the hassle of filming, lighting and then editing them.

You and your family inspire the moments, we film them. Simple.

Why does it cost so much?

In one word, time. Believe it or not, discussing the details of your starEvents project and location ideas with you, the actual filming is the easy part. The real work begins when the filming ends. The editing is the most time-consuming part of the whole process.

We use the latest digital cameras, computers and software to create your starEvents video. But all this technology does is make the editing process possible – not easy – and definitely not quick.

On average, it takes around 6 hours to edit 3 minutes of entertaining, watchable footage. The results can be stunning, but like all good things, it takes time and we have to charge accordingly.

Why does the editing take so long?

Back in the studio we have to make lots of choices. All the footage is reviewed against the starEvents theme and chosen music. The 'good bits' are highlighted.

Then the editing really begins.

Using our experience and creativity, we take tiny segments from all the sources mentioned and start piecing them together. It's like a big, colourful jigsaw. But it's a jigsaw without a final shape – because we are dedicated to creating a video that truly enhances your starEvents theme.

Often we use split-second segments of footage to build to a funny moment, in time with the music and the lyrics of the theme song(s).

It is all very personal. And it all takes time.

Will we want to watch it again?

Yes! You and your family will want to revisit moments and memories recorded on film again and again. Bring your starEvent film out at Christmas gatherings, special birthdays and any other get together. With every starEvent film we produce, we make sure it won't just gather dust on your shelf. If you and your family enjoy watching it again and again – then we have done our job well.

Can I give you some of my own footage to edit?

Absolutely. All that we ask is you find the points on the tape you would like to include as part of a new starEvents film. Just set your video or camera to zero and write down the clock times as well as a brief summary of the pieces you might like. We will then combine this with freshly shot scenes or create a video segment that features only your original footage. It's up to you.

What about some old photos?

You're welcome to supply us with your favourite photos. Depending on the starEvents package you choose, we'll scan the best ones in and incorporate them seamlessly into the final result. Presented with music, your old photos could add a new twist to some fond memories.

What is the perfect occasion for a starEvents film?

Any occasion is perfect – from milestone birthday celebrations and anniversaries to bar mitzvahs and even christenings.

Can I choose what's in my starEvents film?

Definitely. We discuss the script with you before we begin shooting a single second. And together we compile a film that's every bit as unique as your family.

Next we help you choose a complementing soundtrack, interview questions and even props. Then everything can come together in a fun day of filming to create a starEvents film you and your family will love.

What happens on the day of filming?

Before the filming we would have agreed the theme, soundtrack and discussed your requirements. We would have also talked to you about interview questions people will respond to best.

On the day of filming it really depends on the theme and content. If we are shooting in or around your home, we will arrive at a time to suit you – including evenings and weekends – and set up the lights, camera and microphone for any interviews. We may also film any other 'extras' that may be useful.

Where do you film a starEvents video?

Wherever is most appropriate to the chosen theme. And more convenient for you.

Normally we will move around a location – shooting different angles or backgrounds to make the most of the time. But there really is no pressure on you to decide all locations. We can make suggestions based on our experience and the selected theme.

How many people come and shoot on the day?

When we shoot a starEvents video, discretion is key particularly in a public place such as a schoolground or sporting event. That's why there are only two people in the crew. And great care is always taken not to 'step on any toes' during filming. Where possible, prior approval of a special location can be arranged.

How much time does it take to film the starEvents video?

This depends on the theme and requirements you choose.

For example a tribute birthday starEvents film may be shot over a few days – including interviews with family and friends in different locations as well as shots of the 'star' doing various activities. Or for children and babies we know we can only film for a few hours.

Can you tailor a starEvents film for a special gift?

Absolutely. A starEvents film would make an ideal and thoughtful present. Mother's Day, Father's Day and Christmas. The gift possibilities really are endless. A milestone birthday is another great time to think about booking a starEvents video. With your help, we will arrange to do our filming in secret so the surprise is fantastic on the Day. Just make sure you keep the kids quiet!

What other starEvents ideas do you have?
